Our Quilt Show is a fundraiser sponsored by the Little Chute Historical Society for our authentic, fully functioning, 1850's design Dutch Windmill. The Windmill is a non-profit organization run by volunteers. The entry fee for your quilt provides working capital for the windmill and also gives you free entry to the quilt show for the whole weekend ($6.00 value or more if you choose to come everyday) & gives you a tour of the windmill.

Contest Rules

- Open to quilters ages 16 and over.
- Entries must be pieced by person named on entry form. Quilt may be machine finished or hand finished by someone other than the piecer. Quilts must be in show condition, clean, free from odors, and/or pet hairs. Intake committee reserves the right to reject items that are not appropriate or ready for display. Unfinished items are ineligible.
